Poem
The Lost Half

Ah, but what is left when half of you is gone?
How does that half learn how to carry on?
How does that half face the world alone?
How does that half rise up from bed each day?
Knowing that its partner won't be there to show the way?
A half without its half needs to learn to breathe again.
Forever thinking of its half, its soulmate and best friend.

Prayers and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

Poem

He Is Gone

You can shed tears that Dave has gone,
Or you can smile because he lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see him,
Or you can be full of the love that you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember him and only that he has gone,
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what Dave would want:
Smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
